Cervical Solutions

Fusion Device

The Vista-S Fusion Device is a load sharing, radiolucent spacer made of PEEK-OPTIMA® to accommodate varying patient anatomy in the cervical spine.

Confidence

The Vista-S Fusion Device is made of PEEK-OPTIMA® and is engineered to fit a variety of patient anatomy while giving surgeons the confidence they've come to expect from a PEEK interbody spacer. Designed to be used with Mergence®-S instrumentation, the implantation of Vista-S is sleek, simple and efficient without sacrificing stability or performance.

RELIABILITY THROUGH ENGINEERING

Precision

- A wide range of footprints, geometries and heights allow surgeons to choose the perfect fit for patient anatomy and needs
- Tantalum markers allow for intraoperative visualization to ensure precise positioning
- Expanded footprints and heights ensure a proper fit even for outlier patient anatomies

Dependability

- Shark tooth surface on superior and inferior surfaces reduce risk of device migration
- Large graft window allows graft material to promote fusion
- Proven through years in the OR, PEEK-OPTIMA® provides a radiolucent and strong, stable construct

PRODUCT ATTRIBUTES

- Tapered posterior edge combined with central inserter for improved visibility and ease of insertion
- “Shark tooth” surface pattern to reduce the risk of migration
- Three tantalum bead markers (two anterior corners, one posterior middle) allow for visualization of implant position
- Height measured on posterior side
